DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after allowance or after an Office action under Ex Parte Quayle, 25 USPQ 74, 453 O.G. 213 (Comm'r Pat. 1935). Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, prosecution in this application has been reopened pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 6/12/2005 has been entered.

Response to Amendment/ Information Disclosure Statement

2. The information disclosure statement (IDS) submitted on 6/21/2005 was filed after the mailing date of the Notice of Allowance on 3/15/2005. The submission is in compliance with the provisions of 37 CFR 1.97. Accordingly, the information disclosure statement is being considered by the examiner.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 17-30 are allowed. Claims 17, 24, 28, 29 and 30 are independent. Claims 18-23 are dependencies of claim 17, and claims 25-27 are dependencies of claim 24.

Reasons for Allowance

4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claims 17, 24 and 28-30

The prior art of record neither anticipates nor fairly and reasonably teaches a computerized method, a system and a computer readable medium containing program instructions for detecting fraud in a credit card transaction between a consumer and a merchant over Internet, comprising, inter alia, the steps of receiving credit card information associated with the consumer that identifies the card to be used in the Internet transaction, verifying the credit card information based upon (a) a consistency check that determines whether the credit card information matches the consumer, (b) a transaction history check that determines whether the credit card information is consistent with the transaction information, (c) an automatic verification system and (d) an Internet identification system that determines whether a physical address specified in the transaction information is consistent with other physical addresses that have been specified in a database of records of other transaction information for other transactions that are associated with the Internet address of the consumer (see claims 17, 24, 28, 29 and 30).

Applicant's remarks in the appeal brief submitted on 10/14/2003 are compelling and commensurate with the original disclosure, see page 3, line 3-page 4, line of the appeal brief:

Claims 18-23 and 25-27.

Since claims 18-23 and 25-27 are dependencies of independent claims and 24 the reasons for allowance for all the dependent claims is same as for claims 17, 24, and 28-30 given above.

5. Discussion of most relevant prior art:

The following references have been identified as most relevant prior art to the claimed invention(s).

The most closely applicable prior art of record is referred to in Paper 15, Final action mailed on 7/10/2003, that is Wallace in view of McCrea et al. and Gopinathan et al. Wallace teaches a dynamic authentication process of credit transactions to prevent fraud, Gopinathan et al. teaches an automated system and method to predict fraudulent transactions using a predictive model, such as neural network to evaluate and identify fraudulent transactions and McCrea et al. discloses that IP addresses are the primary way of identifying computers engaged in Internet activities. However, Wallace in view of McCrea et al. and Gopinathan et al. fails to render obvious the application's above-mentioned underlined unique features(s). See Applicant's arguments on pages 6-10 of the Appeal Brief submitted on 10/14/2003. Also, refer to the "Opinion" on pages 4-6, rendered by Board in its decision on 1/28/2005, which is consistent with the applicant's arguments in stating that, "Consequently, there is not necessarily a correlation between an IP address and the geographical location of a computer Id. .... In view of the foregoing teachings of McCrea, when read in context of the reference, we are in ultimate agreement<sup>6</sup> with appellant".

6. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Yogesh C. Garg whose telephone number is 571-272-6756. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F(8:30-4:00).
